Calling on Louth County Council to erect a memorial to remember Dundalk teenager Ciara Breen who has been missing from her home in Batchelors walk since 13th February 1997.

For nearly 30 years, Ciara's family have been living with the devastation of her unexplained disappearance, while simultaneously having no official place of remembrance.

A memorial close to her home in Batchelors walk would provide somewhere for her family and the people of Dundalk to remember her, while also offering a place of solace for all who knew her.

End.
