Community Child Safeguarding Statement

Subsidiary Service Specific Child Safeguarding Statement

This statement sets out the principles and procedures to be observed to ensure as far as possible, that a child availing of Louth County Council Community Section is safe from harm.

To be read in conjunction with the Louth County Council Corporate Child Safeguarding Statement Relevant Services Provided

Louth County Council considers that we are a relevant service, under the Act.

1. Name of service being provided: Louth County Council Community Section

2. Nature of service:

The Community Section of Louth County Council supports and assists communities and groups to sustain themselves. This assistance is provided through various sub structures such as

- Tidy Towns Support
- Comhairle na nOg
- Public Participation Network
- Age Friendly and Older People's Council
- Community Development
- Migrant Strategy

3. Principles to safeguard children from harm:

Louth County Council is committed to a child centred approach to our work with children in the delivery of all our services and activities.

Louth County Council is committed to:-

- Promoting general welfare, health development and safety of children;
- Ensuring safe management procedures are in place for all staff and volunteers including: robust recruitment, selection, supervision and support procedures;
- Developing guidance and procedures for staff and volunteers who may have reasonable grounds for concern about the possible abuse or neglect of a child involved in the services or activities of the Local Authority;
- Ensuring Designated Child Protection Liaison Officers are appointed and accessible;

- Ensuring that the Local Authority has procedures in place to deal with an allegation of abuse made against an employee/volunteer;
- Raising awareness in the organisation about potential risks to children's safety/welfare;
- Developing procedures for responding to accidents and complaints;
- Developing and maintaining clear record keeping procedures;
- Ensuring a Code of Behaviour is in place to provide employees and volunteers with clear guidance on how to treat children and young people in the organisation;
- Developing a policy of interagency cooperation with Tusla and other agencies involved in the protection of a child.

Louth County Council's Child Centred Approach

Louth County Council's child centre approach means to:-

- Treat all children equally
- Listen to and respect children
- Involve children as appropriate
- Provide encouragement, support and praise (regardless of ability)
- Use appropriate language (verbal and physical)
- Have fun and encourage a positive atmosphere
- Offer constructive criticism when needed
- Treat all children as individuals
- Respect a child's personal space
- Use age-appropriate teaching aids
- Lead by example
- Be aware of child time limitations e.g. school/exams when scheduling activities
- Create an atmosphere of trust
- Be aware of the Equal Status Act 2000 – 2015 which relates to discrimination based on grounds of:
 - Gender
 - Civil Status
 - Family Status

- Age
- Race
- Religion
- Disability
- Sexual Orientation
- Membership of the Traveller Community

In addition, the Acts prohibit discrimination in the provision of accommodation services against people who are in receipt of rent supplement, housing assistance or social welfare payments.

- Use all information in respect of children only for the purpose for which it is given, subject to child protection concern(s)
- Only to photograph or use photographs with the specific approval of parent/guardian(s)

4. Risk Assessment

We have carried out an assessment of any potential for harm to a child while availing of our services. This list of risks listed below should be read in conjunction with the corporate identified risks included in the Corporate Child Safeguarding Statement.

	Risk Identified	Procedure in place to manage risk identified

Staff and Accommodation Providers to be aware of child safeguarding procedures and responsibilities under Children First: National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children (2017). Accommodation Providers to implement their service specific Child Safeguarding Statement.

5. Procedures

Our Child Safeguarding Statements have been developed in line with requirements under the Children First Act 2015, Children First: National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children (2017) and Tusla's Child Safeguarding: A Guide for Policy, Procedure and Practice. In addition to the procedures listed in our risk assessment, the following procedures support our intention to safeguard children while they are availing of our service.

- Louth County Council Corporate Child Safeguarding Statement;
- Louth County Council's Policy and Procedure for the Protection and Safeguarding of Children;
- Procedure for provision of and access to child safeguarding training and information, including the identification of the occurrence of harm;
- Procedure for the reporting of child protection or welfare concerns to Tusla;
- Procedures for maintaining a list of the persons in the relevant service who are mandated persons and Deputy Liaison Officers.

All procedures listed are available upon request.

6. Reporting a Concern

Anyone can report a concern about a child. If you have any concerns about a child, you should report it to Tusla. A report can be made in person, by telephone or in writing. Any member of the public who has a concern about a child can contact the Tusla local social work duty service in the area where the child lives for advice about reporting your concerns.

In the event of any emergency where you think a child is in immediate danger and you cannot get in contact with Tusla, you should contact An Garda Síochána.

If a child is in danger outside office hours you can contact the Gardai.

If you require any further information on the Local Authority's Policies and Procedures, please contact within the Community Section, the Deputy Child Protection Liaison Officer – Finbar Gethins, Senior Executive Officer.

Other Deputy Child Protection Liaison Officers within Louth County Council include Amanda Branigan, County Librarian and John Lawrence, Senior Executive Officer, Social Development.

Joe McGuinness, Director of Organisational Development, Louth County Council is the Child Protection Liaison Officer.
