Dear Chief Executive

I wish to submit my objection to the proposed ban to one off housing on the basis that this is unconscionable in a housing crisis. This proposal would only serve large scale builders wherein people would be forced to purchase houses that are based in city areas. The infrastructure in Louth currently is unable to deal with the current level of housing let alone deal with greater density in the city areas.

Further I am at a loss as to how this can be constitutional and in keeping with the planning framework.

Jennifer Drew
