

Rural Housing Development Plan

Colm McCourt []

Sent: 23 December 2020 11:30

To: LouthCDP

Hi

I would like to object to the above. I believe that this is being rushed with no consideration for the local people of the area and their children. Not everyone wants to live in towns and cities. Local people want to live where their ancestral homes are, and to prohibit people from building on their own land is totally wrong. The local needs system should be looked at first.

Regards

Colm