

Do I need planning permission to mind children in my house?

Where you are minding no more than 6 children (including your own) for profit or gain, you do not require planning permission.

Note there may be Child minding Regulations which you must comply with. Check with your local Health Board.