

Can I Withdraw a Submission/Objection?

There is no mechanism in the regulations for the withdrawal of a submission/objection. You may, however, make a further addition to your submission/objection instructing the Planning Authority to disregard your original observations. Only documents submitted within the first five weeks can be accepted and both documents will remain on file.