

How do I Apply for Planning Permission?

Applications should be made on the official planning application form. Copies of the form are available from the Planning Department and at www.louthcoco.ie. You will also need other documents such as plans and there will usually be a fee for making the application. A checklist guide to lodging planning applications is available to assist you in making your application.