

If the site is down a Laneway, which is not a Public Road, what must I do regarding the Site Notice?

The site notice must be located at the entrance to the private road where it meets the public road, and at the entrance to the site.