

What is an Extension of Time?

Where the applicant consents to extend the period of time for making a decision, the Planning Authority has the power to extend the period to the date consented to by the applicant.