

What is the Procedure that is followed following the receipt of a Complaint?

On receipt of a complaint the Planning Authority carries out an inspection and if necessary issues a Warning Letter. If the developer fails to comply with the Warning Letter within the time specified then an Enforcement Notice is issued. If the developer fails to comply with the Enforcement Notice at this stage the Planning Authority takes the case to court.