PP00309A/002

Coloured postcard sent from William George Abraham to his sister Miss May Abraham, Collon, County Louth. The message reads: ‘Dear May, it is near time to write to yourself, isn’t it. I hope that you are quite well and going to school every day. How is poor “Snap”. Hope you will like this card. Don’t forget to write me a long letter. Good bye. With best love from your loving brother Billie xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx’

The image of the postcard depicts a dog looking at a girl eating a sweet with the title ‘Ask nicely, and you will get it’ (also in French). The sender has written ‘Snap’ on the dog and ‘May’ on the girl. Snap was Abraham’s dog.

The postcard, number 718 from the ‘DOGGIE’ series, was produced by Inter-Art Company, Kinofilm House, 6 and 7, Red Lion Square, London WC.
