Ordered.—That our Solicitor employ Counsel to appear for us at the hearing of the Memorial of the Dundalk and Ardee Tramway Company, and be paid the costs incident to same.

Ordered—That Joseph Reilly, of Ardee, be appointed Court-keeper of the Quarter Sessions' Court-house, Ardee, at a salary of £4 per annum, commencing from the present Assizes; and that said Joseph Reilly be appointed Caretaker of Ardee Bridewell at a salary of £4 per annum, commencing from the present Assizes, on his signing an agreement for the discharge of said appointment, and such agreement to be approved of by the County Solicitor.

Ordered—That John Craig, of Faughart, in the County of Louth, farmer, be appointed Collector of County Cess for the Barony of Lower Dundalk.

Referring to the Order made at Summer Assizes, 1882, as to Discharged Presentment No. 374, Summer Assizes, 1881, and it appearing that Daniel Kelly has not since been heard of—

Ordered—That the sum of £7, in said Order named, be paid to Patrick Kelly, in said Order named, on his indemnifying the Grand Jury against any claim to or in respect of said sum by said Daniel Kelly.

Having regard to the letter of the Lord Lieutenant, dated 25th February, 1884, calling upon the Grand Jury to provide for the repair of damage to Gyles' Pier, without the intervention of the Government—

Ordered—That a sum of £250 be levied off the Barony of Lower Dundalk, and that same, together with a sum of £50, now in hands and available and applicable to the repairs of said Pier, making together the sum of £300, be placed in the hands of the County Surveyor for the repair of said Pier, as far as he may consider necessary, by him, between this and the next ensuing Assizes, and that he report fully as to said expenditure and the state of said Pier to the Grand Jury at said ensuing Assizes.

The Grand Jury of the County of Louth in accepting the resignation of Mr. Burton Booth, who has acted as their Solicitor for twenty-seven years, wish to convey to him their very high sense of the strict attention he has always given to the duties of his office, together with his uniformly courteous conduct at all times to the members of their body.

Proposed by William Ruxton, Esq., seconded by Thomas M. Richardson, Esq.,

That Mr. W. R. Rogers be appointed Solicitor to the Grand Jury of the County of Louth, and that said appointment be communicated to him.

Resolved—That the Grand Jury having heard Counsel in support of the application of the Promoters of the Dundalk and Ardee Steam Tramway Company, and the evidence adduced by the said Company in support of the said application, and, also, having heard Counsel on behalf of the Great Northern Railway Company, and the witnesses produced by them in opposition to the said application, and having considered the said application, the Grand Jury disapprove thereof upon the grounds that the expense of carrying out the proposed undertaking, and the amount of traffic, which in the opinion of the Grand Jury, would pass over the same, would not enable a dividend to be paid by the said undertaking, which would warrant the imposition of such a tax as proposed; and, also, on the ground that the said undertaking would not afford any advantage or benefit upon the districts through which it will pass, commensurate with the expense of same; and, also, on the ground that the Grand Jury do not feel themselves justified, under the circumstances, in giving any guarantee for the payment of Dividends, or in imposing upon the ratepayers of the districts mentioned in the proposed order any obligations in respect of the said undertaking.

For Self and Fellows,

JOHN S. ROBINSON,

Foreman of Grand Jury.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT.

The Grand Jury of the County Louth, assembled at Spring Assizes, 1884.

COL. SIR JOHN ROBINSON AND GENTLEMEN,

The length of roads under contract in this County during the past year was 578 miles 2 furlongs and 26 perches, and the cost, £11,116 9s. 7d. There is an increase of a few miles in length, but a reduction in the cost compared with the previous year, shewn more definitely in the tables, of the usual form, annexed to this report.

The advantages of ready payments to Contractors is shewn by the greater tendency to compete for Spring than for Summer Contracts; when taken at Spring, advances are available in about four months, but when taken at Summer, Contractors have to wait eight months for payments during a period when most work is required and most expenditure incurred. It would be desirable when a Presentment is sanctioned and placed on the Warrant that payments should be made out of any surplus to the credit of the Baxony or County, whether the amount of the Special Presentment is levied or not. It is sure to be ready when required. The advantages of making regular and prompt payments for works placed in the Surveyor's hands have been many; when no Contractor is forthcoming at Adjourned Presentment Sessions, or Assizes, for the repairs of a leading road, or other important work, the amount sanctioned in this County is usually placed to the credit of the County Surveyor, for its specified performance. This has effected a saving generally, and in no case was there a loss. I shall be able to represent this year about £240, savings on such works, besides keeping the prices down.

The widening of the road near Mattockbridge, No. 158, last Warrant, Barony of Ferrard, has been postponed for your directions, and to give the adjacent occupier an opportunity to apply at this Assizes for damages.

An application for making about a mile of new road in the Barony of Lower Dundalk appears on the Schedule. This would complete, towards the Bush, an important line of road commenced during the Relief Works in 1848, and since carried on from time to time, from Ferry Hill through the Mountain, over the Big Woman's Grave, and Glenmore. I laid it out 36 years ago and would still recommend its completion.

A breach, upward, through the roadway and sea slope of Giles' Quay took place during the storms from the 10th to the 13th of last month; I reported on the state and construction of this work at last Summer and previously. I also wrote to the Engineer of the Board of Works on the 15th inst., and will lay his reply before you. Carlingford Harbour has been maintained in fair order; a grant is sought by the inhabitants from the Fishery Improvement Commissioners for its improvement and extension. A Bill is brought in, it would appear, by the Lough Commissioners, which would interfere with your right for tolls. Clogher Harbour and Dunany Pier have been duly maintained.

The County roads are in fair order, unless where proceedings have been taken, payments stopped, or no Contracts entered into. Generally, your Contractors have worked pretty fairly.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

JOHN NEVILLE.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT.

To the Grand Jury of the County of Louth, assembled at Summer Assizes, 1884.

COL. SIR JOHN ROBINSON AND GENTLEMEN,

There are now 200 miles of roads under County Presentments, more than at the time of my appointment in 1840, including 47 miles of turnpike roads, existing at that time; the remaining 153 miles being cross and bye roads. Take them all in all, class for class, and season for season, they were never in better order. The failure of a few Contractors, or the neglect of persons or Ratepayers, locally concerned, to take the proper steps to obtain contracts, affects very little this general fact.

The amounts presented by the Grand Jury to the County Surveyor for works not contracted for, and balances on unfinished works, amounted at last Assizes to £1637 17s. 0d. since then I have expended £353 10s. 7d., leaving a balance of £1284 6s. 5d. for carrying on the works, and paying outstanding accounts. Out of this balance I recommend to represent now in favour of the Baronies, savings of £175 13s. 1d., on some of the works finished. For the last five years, including the present, the sum of £814 3s. 4d. was re-presented in aid of the levy from savings, &c, effected by me in such works, and absolutely gained back by the Ratepayers.

In accordance with the directions of the Grand Jury at last Assizes, I beg to report that since Giles' Quay was handed over in Spring, 1879, a separate presentment, apart from the original cost, was claimed by the Board of Works of £100 14s. 5d., for repairs, and paid. Since then there was expended by the County, through me, for further protection and repairs, £324

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT, SUMMER ASSIZES, 1884.

9s. 5d., up to last week. Out of the presentment of £250 to me at last Assizes, £225 10s. 7d. is still in hands. I am proceeding tentatively as from the frequent breaches in stormy weather, and hollows found afterwards in the filling, I think it best to treat them as they occur. I beg to attach here my reports on this work, at and since Summer, 1879, to which I have now nothing to add. I never received any professional remuneration for this work, or for any other placed specially in my charge by the Grand Jury.

FROM SUMMER WARRANT, 1879.

In compliance with the order of the Grand Jury at Spring Assizes, I examined, early last April, the new works and pier at Giles' Quay, at low spring ebb tide. The superstructure is fairly built, but the substructure and foundations are defective, and not such as a Contractor should deliver up to the County, or that I could certify for. I think it would be well to apply for a copy of the original plans and specifications.

FROM SUMMER WARRANT, 1880.

The questions respecting the Pier at Giles' Quay, are at present in the hands of a Committee.

FROM SPRING WARRANT, 1881.

I have got the rules and regulations for Giles' Quay Harbour, as arranged by the board of Works, posted up by the Harbour Constable. It is now necessary to arrange a schedule of tolls which I shall submit for your approbation. I have reason to believe that, through the kind exertions of their Chief Engineer, any repairs and defects in Giles' Quay will be made good by the Board of Public Works.

FROM SUMMER WARRANT, 1881.

The cost of repairs carried on at Giles' Quay by the Commissioners of Public Works, since last Assizes, amounting to over £100, is proposed to be levied of the immediate townlands. When I referred to this subject in my last report, I certainly expected, in justice, that the expenses would be borne by the Commissioners themselves.

FROM SPRING WARRANT, 1882.

Giles' Quay Pier is not in a satisfactory state. The late storms and high tides have injured it. This work, so far, has been in Government hands. You are already informed of all about it; £100 has been presented for its repairs at Ravensdale Road Sessions; much more will probably be required for and after next winter.

FROM SUMMER WARRANT, 1882.

The Pier of Giles' Quay referred to in my last report, is not in a safe state, even the repairs formerly made have suffered. When the work was placed in my care for the first time, by a small presentment at last Assizes, I examined the sea slope and probed through the joints with iron rods. I found hollow depths of two feet and over, under some of the concrete block-facing; more forward to the sea some blocks were washed out entirely, and one of about 3 tons pitched over and on to the strand. I have, as yet, only expended about £30 in piling to stop denudation, and in grouting with portland cement mortar through the open joints into the hollows beneath. The action of the Pier on the tidal currents has caused denudations in some places, and filling in with gravel in others. I intend proceeding tentatively, but beg to suggest that a further sum of £100 be presented in addition to the £70 still in hands, to meet any further expenditure on necessary protection works, up to next Spring Assizes. It is right to mention that I have seen trenches cut on the strand, not far from the Pier, at right angles to the coast, to get out the stones found therein for shipping away, as such removal deprives the coast of part of its natural protection, I beg here to call your attention, and especially that of the adjacent landlords on the Grand Jury, to the fact.

FROM SPRING WARRANT, 1883.

The Government Pier at Giles' Quay and adjacent County sea slope have suffered from high tides and storm.

FROM SUMMER WARRANT, 1883.

The Pier at Giles' Quay has been brought several times under your consideration. A very small sum of £50 was sanctioned at last Presentment Sessions in Carlingford (in addition to £100 granted in 1882), to continue some protection and repairs, is now before you. The original construction towards the sea was very defective, and the slope and loose filling beneath suffer continually. The work should have been constructed substantially at first, before transferring it to the County for future repairs. I mention this, as having received a copy of a printed circular, dated the 25th June, from Dublin Castle, on the subject of Piers generally along coast counties, and to call your attention to the subject as far as this County is concerned.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT, SUMMER ASSIZES, 1884.

FROM SPRING WARRANT, 1884.

A breach, upwards through the roadway and sea slope of Giles' Quay, took place during the storms from the 10th to the 13th of last month. I reported on the state and construction of this work at last Summer and previously. I also wrote to the Engineer of the Board of Works on the 15th inst., and will lay his reply before you.

In compliance with the Law, it was my duty under the Tramway's Act, previous to last Spring Assizes, to prepare a report for the Grand Jury, and give a copy thereof a certain time before, to the promoters of the Dundalk and Ardee Tramway. To afford full and fair information, I had to prepare a large map and two smaller ones, showing the proposed limits of taxation in the respective parishes. I believe the County has saved thousands of pounds, while I received nothing whatever. I now appeal for your protection in the matter.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

JOHN NEVILLE,

Co. Surveyor.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT.

To the Grand Jury of the County of Louth, assembled at Spring Assizes, 1885.

COL. SIR JOHN S. ROBINSON AND GENTLEMEN,

The amount of Presentments for all County Works in the past year was £12,105. The number of miles under repairs and maintenance, 575. The average rate per perch, 13 pence. The average cost on the Valuation, 14 pence. The average number of miles repaired to each 1000 acres in the Baronies, from 2.52 to 3.06. The usual tables, hereto attached, give the quantities and cost in detail, with a comparison for the last three years.

In the Warrant for last Assizes there was placed, and remained to my credit, £2,198 3s. 6d ; I have since expended £1,258 0s. 0d., and there remains £940 3s. 6d. credit on the books still, out of which I recommend to represent £73 1s. 1d. not required. This, with £175 18s. 1d. at last Assizes, make £248 19s. 2d. during the year, represented in aid of the levy. Such works I endeavour to place in the care of ordinary contractors as soon as possible, representing sums not expended or required to the credit of their Baronies.

The Applications on the Schedule are of the usual kind. The contract roads are generally in fair order for the season. This is the 89th Grand Jury I have attended without an omission ; and I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

JOHN NEVILLE,

County Surveyor.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT.

To the Foreman and Grand Jury of Louth, assembled at Summer Assizes, 1885.

SIR JOHN ROBINSON AND GENTLEMEN,

A sum of £952 2s. 5d. was available to my credit at last Spring Assizes for various works, out of which I expended £253 8s. 9d., leaving a balance to my credit of £698 13s. 8d.; out of this I propose re-presenting £210 13s. 10d. not required, in aid of the levy now; leaving a credit of £487 19s. 10d., for completing the other works so far as shall be necessary. The sum of £210 13s. 10d. with £248 19s. 2d. mentioned in my last report, and £814 3s. 4d. in that for Summer, 1884, make together £1273 16s. 4d. savings re-presented in aid of the levy to the credit of the County from such works, since the year 1879.

Fully the usual mileage of roads is in fair repair, and the Schedule before you is of the usual type, showing over competition in many cases, and want of any in a few others, amongst contractors.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

JOHN NEVILLE.
