COUNTY OF LOUTH.

SPRING ASSIZES, 1882.

WE, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of Louth, assembled at Dundalk Spring Assizes, desire to express our abhorrence and detestation of the crime attempted to be perpetrated on our beloved Sovereign. We beg humbly to assure Her Majesty of our unalterable loyalty and devoted attachment to Her Crown and Person, and to express our thankfulness to Almighty God that the Queen has been mercifully spared to rule over her people.

Signed,

ARTHUR MACAN, High Sheriff.

For self and fellows.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT.

To the Grand Jury of Louth assembled at Spring Assizes, 1882.

SIR JOHN ROBINSON and GENTLEMEN,

The amount presented for baronial works last year was £11,859, and the sum represented in aid of the levy for unexecuted works £505, leaving £11,354 for the amount levied. I have appended hereto the usual annual statistics of the expenditure on works in each barony.

Out of the works placed specially at my disposal, from the neglect of contractors, or the absence of any, I have saved £143 to be represented in aid of the levy at this Assizes. In some cases considerable extra work was done which ordinary contractors would not be required to execute. The land was paid for at Greenore and an extra rock Ashlar coping at Bellew's bridge out of the presentments.

The county roads are generally in fair order, with not more than the usual number of exceptions for a wet winter: one of these exceptions has been the road between Castlebellingham and the adjacent Railway Station. No. 115, Lower Dundalk, has been entirely neglected. I recommend that the contractor and his sureties be sued. On looking at the schedule for that barony it will be seen that the competition there has not been healthy.

The Piers at Carlingford, Clogher, and Dunany have been repaired to some extent, and Carlingford Pier and Harbour is paying. Giles' Pier is not in a satisfactory state. The late storms and high tides have injured it. This work, so far, has been in Government hands. You are already informed of all about it. £100 has been presented for its repairs at Ravensdale Road Sessions; much more will probably be required for and after next winter.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT, SPRING ASSIZES, 1882.

There are about twenty-six Traction Engines worked on the County Roads; so far they have not done much injury, but they are working without authority, and I beg to draw your attention to this fact.

A sum of £480 has been presented, and is now available for cutting hills and filling hollows on the Dundalk and Castleblayney Road. No work has been done. The contractor is dead. I do not recommend the expenditure now of this entire sum, but it is advisable to decide on its application, and to represent the whole or a portion of it at this Assizes.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your faithful servant,

JOHN NEVILLE.

AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD.

COUNTY OF LOUTH.

(COPY.

13, Herbert Road, Dublin, 11th Oct., 1881.

GENTLEMEN—I have the honor to report that I have audited the accounts of the Secretary of the Grand Jury of the County of Louth for the period following the Summer Assizes, 1881, and I forward an Abstract of the accounts herewith duly declared and certified by me.

The total Receipts from all sources during the period amounted to £8,992 10s. 8d., making, with Balance of £5,616 6s. 11d., a Total of £14,608 17s. 7d. The total expenditure amounted to £9,186 14s. 6d., leaving a balance of £5,422 3s. 1d., which agrees with the amount in Bank to the credit of the County. In addition to this balance a sum of £2,300 is invested in Exchequer Bills.

The collection of the County Cess was more than usually backward, and in one Barony—that of Ferrard—the large arrear of £815 8s. 5d. was due on 2nd August, the date to which the accounts were made up. The collector, Mr. T. McCullough, has, however, since lodged £798 12s. 1d. of the above arrears; but the Grand Jury have refused to re-appoint him as Collector.

The Secretary's accounts have been very satisfactorily kept.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

THOS. COLLOT.

To the Local Government Board,
Dublin.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT.

*To the Grand Jury of the County of Louth, at Summer
Assizes, 1882.*

SIR JOHN ROBINSON AND GENTLEMEN,

The pier of Gyles' Quay referred to in my last report is not in a safe state. Even the repairs formerly made have suffered. When the work was placed in my care for the first time, by a small presentment at last Assizes, I examined the sea-slope and probed through the joints with iron rods. I found hollow depths of two feet and over, under some of the concrete block-facing. More forward to the sea, some blocks were washed out entirely, and one of about 3 tons pitched over and on to the strand. I have, as yet, expended only about £30 in piling, to stop denudation, and in grouting with Portland Cement Mortar through the open joints into the hollows beneath. The action of the pier on the tidal currents has caused denudation in some places and filling in with gravel in others. I intend proceeding tentatively, but beg to suggest that a further sum of £100 be presented, in addition to the £70 still in hand, to meet any further expenditure on necessary protection works, up to next Spring Assizes.

It is right to mention that I have seen trenches cut on the strand, not far from the pier, at right angles to the coast, to get out the stones found therein for shipping away. As such removal deprives the coast of part of its natural protection, I beg here to call your attention, and especially that of the adjacent landlords on the Grand Jury, to the fact.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT, SUMMER ASSIZES, 1882.

I shall report where necessary on the other works before you on the schedule when come to

We direct that the following defaulting Road Contractor be handed over to the Crown Solicitor for prosecution, viz. :—

Query, No. 378, Edward Murphy.

Ordered—That James Joseph Stokes, who has been Cess Collector for the Baronies of Drogheda and Ferrard, be re-appointed Cess Collector for said Baronies, and that the perfecting of his Security for same be deferred until the ensuing General Quarter Sessions for this County, in consequence of the unexpected and unavoidable absence of two of his sureties.

Ordered—That having regard to the Report of the Committee appointed to examine the Cess Collectors' Arrear Sheets, and proposed Securities, the several Cess Collectors of the County do take such active steps under their Warrants as the law enables them to collect the sums from the different persons liable; and that in any case in which they fail to satisfy the Committee and Grand Jury that they have taken such steps, they be charged with, and held liable for the sum or sums in arrear.

Ordered—That in lieu of the Order made in the case of defaulting Contractors at Spring Assizes, 1880, in all cases which the County Surveyor requires legal assistance on behalf of the County in prosecution of defaulting Contractors, he shall be at liberty to apply to Mr. Booth, Solicitor to the Grand Jury, who shall act in such prosecutions, or employ a local Solicitor to do so, and be paid the proper costs in reference thereto, including the attendance of witnesses; and it is further Ordered, that the costs already incurred by the County Surveyor in prosecution of defaulting Contractors be paid to the said Solicitor for the Grand Jury.

Miss Annie Wiseman, late Matron of Louth Prison, having been granted an Annuity by way of Superannuation Allowance, under the provisions of the Act 40 & 41 Victoria, chapter 49, of £12 18s. 6d. per annum, of which £6 16s. 7d. was payable by the late Prison Authority, and £6 1s. 11d. by the Treasury; and the Lords of the Treasury having commuted the Imperial portion of this annuity for a sum of £110 5s. 8d., under the provisions of the Act 41 & 42 Vic., chap. 63, the County is now called on to pay said annuity of £12 18d. 6d.; and the said Annie Wiseman having memorialled the Grand Jury at the present Assizes for an increase of said annuity. Ordered—That said annuity be increased to the sum of £22 10s per annum, commencing from the 8th of December, 1882.

Resolved—That we, the Members of the County of Louth Grand Jury, assembled at Spring Assizes, 1883, have heard with astonishment, that female prisoners sentenced for more than eight days, are to be imprisoned in Grange Gorman Prison in Dublin, thus putting the County to very great expense, which we consider unnecessary, as there are two Prisons in the County—one at Dundalk and one at Drogheda. We respectfully ask his Excellency to re-consider this matter, and arrange that this additional expense shall not be put upon the County.

A Copy of above Resolution to be forwarded to the Lord Lieutenant.

Resolved—That the Grand Jury of the County of Louth, assembled at Spring Assizes, 1883, have seen with great concern that the proposed postal arrangement for carrying the Irish Mail throws over, as of no importance, the Passenger Traffic between Ireland and England. That for nearly five-and-twenty years the service as carried out by the City of Dublin Steampacket Company, has met general approval, and given universal satisfaction. That at a time when improved communication is in all directions the order of the day, it appears to us monstrous that an arrangement should be entered into of so distinctly retrograde a nature, and which, if carried out, would seriously impede communication between the two Countries, so particularly desirable at present in the interests of Ireland.

Foreman of Grand Jury.

GRAND JURY ORDERS AT SPRING ASSIZES, 1883

The High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Louth, assembled at Spring Assizes, 1883, desire respectfully to offer to the Right Hon. Mr. Justice Lawson, on his return as Crown Judge of Assize, their hearty congratulations on his recent providential escape from the hands of an assassin, and to assure him, at the same time, of their feeling of personal esteem for his Lordship.

CONWAY E. DOBBS, High Sheriff.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT.

To the Grand Jury of Louth assembled at Spring Assizes, 1883.

SIR JOHN ROBINSON AND GENTLEMEN,

The amount of presentment for roads, including all ancillary and other baronial works, during the past year was £11,903 12s. 6d. The number of miles of roads under contract for repairs, maintenance, &c., 577, or about 11 miles more than in 1881. The rate per pound on the valuation was 14-08 pence, and the rate per perch, including the cost of every work, 14-77 pence. The details are given in the usual tables herewith annexed for each barony, and the comparative cost for the last three years.

To prevent inconvenience and ultimate loss to the public, I have occasionally undertaken, temporarily, at Assizes, the carrying out of some of the works not contracted for, or not duly executed by contractors. This has effected a saving in most of them, and involved no extra expenditure on any. The savings for the past year on such works, which I now hand over to be re-presented in aid of the levy is £101 6s. 3d. Generally I get the old contractors to do their former work; but I had to give this up in a few cases when I found obstruction instead of help.

There is generally no practical advantage derived by suing defaulters, and I seldom do so, or recommend it to be done except in extreme cases. Under the Grand Jury Act itself no funds from presentments are available until Assizes, and proceedings under 17th sec. 19 & 20 Vic., cap. 63, are often rendered inoperative from delays, sometimes from want of Justices, and when these attend and an order made, from the poverty of defaulters and their securities. Action under sec. 146 of the Grand Jury Act, is, I believe, least troublesome, and most effective. I may observe here that the Grand Jury is one of the parties to each contract, the contractor the other; my duty lies in designing, specifying, certifying for or not, and taking proceedings under 18 & 19 Vic., above referred to. These latter would be most suitably and best directed by your Solicitor. At one Petty Sessions Court lately my Assistant could not be considered as my representative, and it was necessary for me to attend personally, or by a Solicitor. I attended twice in two months without finding a Magistrate in the Court. The last or third month I sent a Solicitor. At present I must place before you two extreme cases, the contractors for Nos. 378 and 449, last Warrant, for proceedings to be taken against.

The boundary of Dundalk between town and barony runs in several places along the centre of the roads; and as it is practically next to impossible for two authorities to repair the same road longitudinally together, I suggested in such cases to the Boundary Commissioners giving half the length to that district which lies next adjoining. This has been carried out very fairly by the Town Commissioners, except on the Newry road, where the stone put up as a mark should be removed, when the existing contracts expire, to the North Marsh road, or at least to the Dowdall's Hill end, which latter I would recommend.

The weather up to the middle of February was unusually severe, wet, and stormy. The roads were, however, with some exceptions about five per cent., pretty fairly kept. The Government Pier at Giles' Quay and adjacent County sea-slope have, however, suffered from high tides and storm.

I lost three Assistants since last Assizes, but appointed only two as yet in their place. I could not easily supply the place of the third; the office is yet vacant, but the work has been duly performed.

There is only one application on the Schedule now before you which it is right I should here for the first time specially refer to. It is No. 1, Barony of Ferrard, £640, to reform, widen, drain, and repair 640 perches of a road of which 110 perches is a green lane,—not shown on the Ordnance sheet of 1836,—about 14 feet wide, with gradients up to 1 in 10, never repaired by the County. The remaining 530 perches is a part of the ancient road from Collon to Drogheda, shown in Taylor and Skinner's Map of Louth, dated 1777; and also in part on the Ordnance Sheets Nos. 21 and 24, engraved in 1836, and revised in 1869, one portion of about 134 perches having been absorbed into the adjacent lands in the interim. The present width of the 530 perches is where narrowest now only about 9 feet, varying elsewhere to 16 feet and upwards, having gradients up to 1 in 13. The rate sought, £1 per perch, is twice as much as was sanctioned for 356 perches of its continuation to Water-Under in 1880. It would in my judgment be fair if a very large proportion of the cost were borne by the owners and occupiers of the Townlands passed through, as an outlet or farm road, especially those of Coolfed and Balgatheran, as it is not the direct line; nor the best public line, between one end and the other at the junctions with the comparatively modern main road from Collon to Drogheda.—I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant, JOHN NEVILLE.

AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD

COUNTY OF LOUTH.

(COPY.)

13, Herbert Road, Dublin, 14th Oct., 1882.

GENTLEMEN—I have the honor to report that I have audited the Accounts of the Secretary of the Grand Jury of the County of Louth for the period following Summer Assizes, 1882, and I forward an Abstract of the Accounts duly declared and certified by me.

The total Receipts for the period amounted to £9,490 3s. 9d., making with balance of £4,357 0s. 10d. a total of £13,847 4s. 7d. The total Expenditure amounted to £8,953 10s. 2d., leaving a balance of £4,893 14s. 5d. in Bank to the credit of the County.

In addition to the above balance there are County Funds invested in Exchequer Bills to the amount of £2,300.

The Receipts include a sum of £269 13s. 2d. paid over to the County by Her Majesty's Treasury under the Act 41 & 42 Vic., chap. 63, for commutation in full of Government Pensions to Gaol Officers. These pensions to be in future paid by County Presentments.

The collection of County Cess appears to have been very unsatisfactory; for while the Arrears at close of the period following Spring Assizes amounted to £301 17s. 5d., the Arrears at close of period following Summer Assizes had increased to £887 5s. 9d. A more energetic discharge of duty on the part of the Collectors appears imperatively necessary.

The Accounts of the Secretary are very satisfactorily kept.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

THOS. COLLOT.

To the Local Government Board,
Dublin.

I certify that this is a true copy.—JAMES FRANCIS MAYNE, 18th Oct., 1882.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT.

To the Grand Jury of Louth assembled at Summer Assizes, 1883.

COL. SIR JOHN ROBINSON AND GENTLEMEN,

The Applications on the Schedule are of the usual kind and shall be reported on separately, where necessary, when called over.

The Pier at Giles' Quay has been several times brought under your consideration. A very small sum of £50 was sanctioned at last Presentment Sessions in Carlingford (in addition to £100 granted in 1882,) to continue some protection and repairs, is now before you.

The original construction towards the sea was very defective, and the slope and loose filling beneath suffer continually. The work should have been constructed substantially at first, before transferring it to the County for future repairs.

I mention this, as having received a copy of a printed circular dated the 25th June, from Dublin Castle, on the subject of Piers generally along Coast Counties, and to call your attention to the subject as far as this County is concerned.

A Balance of £745 5s. 11½d. remains yet unexpended to the credit of the County, out of £1051 5s. 8d. placed at the disposal of the County Surveyor at last Spring, for the execution of several works in the different Baronies.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

JOHN NEVILLE.
