Welcome to Your New Home

4 QUALITY
EDUCATION

Section 1 – Welcome to your new home

Welcome Message from Ger Murphy, Director of Services, Housing and Culture Delivery

Dear Resident,

On behalf of Louth County Council's Housing Service, I am delighted to welcome you to your new home. We recognise that a home is not simply a building, it is the foundation for family life, for community, and for personal dignity and peace of mind. We hope that your tenancy marks the beginning of a very positive and secure chapter for you and your household.

We developed this handbook to support you in your new tenancy. It contains information about what you can expect from us as your landlord, in terms of maintenance, rent, estate management and community support. It also covers what we expect from you as a tenant in return. Local authority housing is built on partnership and mutual respect; when we each understand and fulfil our roles, we can ensure that your home and your estate are safe, well-maintained, and enjoyable places in which to live.

As your landlord, Louth County Council is committed to providing homes and services of a high standard. We are also committed to ensuring that our estates foster strong neighbour-relations, remain free from antisocial behaviour, and support a sense of pride and wellbeing for all who live there.

As a tenant, we ask you to embrace your responsibilities:

- to treat your home and the neighbouring homes with respect,
- to pay your rent in a timely manner,
- to carry out the routine upkeep of your property and garden,
- to notify us promptly of any repairs or issues in accordance with your tenancy agreement, and
- to be a positive member of your community.

Breach of tenancy conditions, such as persistent arrears, damage to property, or serious antisocial behaviour can jeopardise your tenancy and may lead to enforcement action.

Should you have any queries or require assistance, please contact the Housing Section, we are always happy to help.

Welcome to your new home and best wishes for many happy years ahead.

Yours sincerely,

Ger Murphy, Director of Services, Housing and Culture Delivery

Before You Move In

Section 2 – Before you move in

Before moving into your new home, you must complete training (called Pre-Tenancy Training) if you are a/an:

- New tenant
- Tenant transferring from one council property to another
- Occupant taking over a tenancy (succession)

What happens during training

Pre-tenancy training helps you understand:

- Your rights and responsibilities as a tenant
- How your tenancy works
- What support is available from the Council
- How to care for your home and how to be a good neighbour
- How rent is calculated and information on rent arrears; and
- Other policies of the councils

Pre-tenancy training also provides an opportunity to meet our staff who will answer any questions you may have.

At the end of the training, you will receive:

- Your house keys
- A copy of your Tenancy Agreement
- A Tenants' Handbook either a paper or digital copy as you prefer
- Helpful advice leaflets

What you need to do first

You'll only get your keys after you:

- Pay your tenancy deposit
- Finish the training
- Sign your Tenancy Agreement
- Have satisfactorily submitted all required documents

Important Reminder - Please take care of your keys. We don't keep a spare set. If your locks need to be changed, you'll be charged.

Refresher Training

The Council may ask existing tenants to attend refresher training if needed.

Moving In: What you need to do

1. Gas and Electricity

Before you move in, you must make sure your electricity and gas accounts are registered in your own name.

- When your home is handed over, you may receive a Meter Point Reference Number (MPRN) for electricity and the Gas Point Reference Number (GPRN) for gas. These are used to set up your accounts.
- Some homes may have a prepay meter already installed. Even if this is the case, you still need to contact the utility provider and set up the account in your name.
- If your home has a standard bill-pay meter, the transfer of the existing account will be arranged by a separate company. You do not need to contact the utility provider directly. Further details will be provided to you during the handover process.
- Meter readings are taken when you receive the keys. These readings are used to start your account. If you notice any issues or differences in the readings, you must report them to Louth County Council immediately.

Important Reminder - Registering your utilities correctly helps avoid service interruptions and billing problems. It's your responsibility to make sure this is done before or as soon as you move in.

2. Bins and Waste Collection

- Contact a local waste company to order a wheelie bin or update your address.
- Check your bin collection day.
- Contact details for waste companies are listed at the back of this handbook.

Important Reminder - You must use an authorised waste collection service and keep receipts or proof of payment. Households in Ireland with kerbside collection must have separate bins for recycling, residual waste, and organic waste. All waste removed from your home, including bulky items like furniture, beds, and electrical equipment (WEEE), must be collected by authorised waste collectors only.

For information on authorised collectors, waste management guidelines, and recycling options, visit www.mywaste.ie.

3. TV, Broadband and Phone

- Contact your service provider to set up TV, broadband, or phone services.
- You must get written permission from the Council before installing a satellite dish.
- Dishes must be placed at the back or side of the house, not on the front or chimney.

Important Reminder - You may also need a TV licence. Visit www.tvlicence.ie for details.

4. Home Contents Insurance

- Louth County Council insures the building only. This means the structure of your home is covered, but not your personal belongings.
- You should arrange your own home contents insurance to protect your possessions.

This type of insurance can cover:

- Fire and flooding
- Theft
- Accidental damage to items like flooring, fixtures, fittings, and personal contents

Important Reminder - Having contents insurance gives you peace of mind and financial protection in case something unexpected happens.

5. Change of Address

- Let important people know your new address (e.g. doctor, school, bank, employer).
- You can use An Post's mail redirection service. Visit your local post office or www.anpost.com for more info.

Managing your money

Moving is expensive. Plan ahead and make a budget.

Costs to expect:

- Bin service with an authorised waste company
- Utilities (electricity, heating, phone, internet)
- Furniture, appliances, and floor coverings
- Curtains, blinds, and decorations
- Contents insurance
- Moving costs (e.g., van hire, fuel)

If you are on social welfare, you may qualify for help with some costs. Contact details for the relevant department within Social Welfare can be found in the directory at the back of this handbook.

03

How to manage Your Tenancy

Section 3 – How to manage your tenancy

Your Tenancy Agreement: What it means

When you become a tenant of Louth County Council, you sign a Tenancy Agreement.

This is a legal contract between you and the Council. It sets out:

- What the Council agrees to provide
- What you agree to do as a tenant

It's important to read and understand this agreement, as it outlines your rights, responsibilities, and what happens if the agreement is broken.

What the Tenancy Agreement covers

- Your right to live in the property as long as you follow the rules
- Rent payments and how they are calculated
- Maintenance responsibilities (what the Council will fix and what you must look after)
- Behaviour expectations, including being a good neighbour
- Rules about pets, alterations, and visitors
- Joint tenancies and equal responsibility for rent, upkeep, and following the rules
- What happens if you want to leave the property.

Note: In this handbook, we use the term tenant for simplicity. However, all rights and responsibilities apply equally to tenants in joint tenancies, unless stated otherwise.

Your responsibilities as a tenant

You must:

- Pay your rent and any other charges on time (Household Budget or Standing Order preferred).
- Use the property solely as your primary residence for residential purposes only. Subletting or taking in lodgers is strictly prohibited.
- Carrying out any commercial enterprise or business from the home is not permitted. This includes, but is not limited to, activities such as operating a beauty or nail salon, vehicle repairs or mechanical work, storage or repair of electrical goods, or the storage of unroadworthy, crashed, abandoned, unused, or for-sale vehicles.
- Live in the property full-time. If you plan to be away for more than 6 weeks in any year, you need written permission from the Council first.
- Maintain your house and gardens in a clean and proper state.

- You must not store any type of waste inside or outside your home that will give rise to odours, nuisance, attract vermin or cause environmental pollution. All waste must be stored in an appropriate receptacle such as a covered bin at all times.
- Ask for and obtain permission before carrying out any alterations or improvements to the property.
- Make sure that you, your family, your pets, any friends visiting the property do not cause nuisance or annoyance to anyone living in the area.
- Report repairs to the Council that we are responsible for so we can deal with them. This includes reporting broken smoke alarms. You must also do any repairs you are responsible for (see Section 5 for further information).
- Allow us access to your property so we can carry out gas safety checks, complete any necessary repairs or improvements included in the Council's works programme, and to conduct housing inspections.
- Notify the Council if your income or household changes.
- Give 4-weeks' notice in writing to the Council to terminate the tenancy and return the keys.

Important Reminder - Do not alter the structure (for example, walls) without written permission. Unauthorised works may result in legal action and charges.

The Council's Responsibilities

We will:

- Maintain the structure/exterior of your home
- Carry out essential repairs to fixtures, plumbing, wiring, and heating (where installed)
- Provide estate management and tenant support services
- Manage antisocial behaviour under housing legislation

Important Reminder - If you break the rules of your tenancy, the Council may take legal action, this could include being asked to leave your home.

Changes in Circumstances

You must immediately notify the Council of any changes in:

- Your income.
- The income of any household member.
- If a baby is born/adopted
- If a household member moves out or passes away
- If one person wants to leave the joint tenancy, they must inform the Council, and the tenancy will need to be reviewed.

Permission to Reside (PTR)

If you want someone to move into your home who isn't already listed on your rent account, you must first get written permission from the Council. This is called a Permission to Reside (PTR). Even if permission is granted, it does not give the person tenancy rights.

Moving someone in without permission is a breach of your tenancy agreement and may lead to enforcement action. Each PTR application is carefully assessed to make sure the home won't become overcrowded and that the person is suitable to live there.

If you require a PTR application form, assistance with completing an application, or an update on a submitted application, please contact the Estate Management Section at 042 933 5457.

Keeping Pets in Your Home

Tenants are allowed to keep up to two domestic pets, as long as they are well-behaved and do not cause a nuisance to neighbours or damage the property. Dogs must be microchipped and licensed.

However, certain dog breeds are not allowed in council-managed homes. These include:

- American Pit Bull Terrier
- English Bull Terrier
- Bull Mastiff
- Staffordshire Bull Terrier
- Doberman Pinscher
- Rottweiler
- German Shepherd (Alsatian)
- Rhodesian Ridgeback
- Japanese Akita
- Japanese Tosa
- XL Bully

This restriction also applies to crossbreeds or strains of any of the above breeds.

If you're unsure whether your pet is allowed, please contact the Estate Management Section before bringing it into your home.

Parking and Vehicles

Tenants may only park roadworthy and licensed private motor or light commercial vehicles at their home. This means vehicles must be:

- Safe to drive
- Properly taxed and insured
- Registered for private or light commercial use

Tenants must not:

- Store a caravan, mobile home, boat, or camper van on the premises or anywhere in the housing estate.
- Use the parking area (if provided) for anything other than roadworthy and licensed private motor or light commercial vehicles.
- Park or store large commercial or large public service vehicles in these areas.
- Block entrances, exits, driveways, pavements, local roadways, or fire hydrants.
- Park vehicles on green areas.

Important Reminder - Abandoned vehicles in the driveway i.e. not insured, NCTd or taxed are strictly prohibited

Looking After Your Home and Garden

As a tenant, you're responsible for keeping your home and garden in good condition.

This means:

- Keep your garden tidy, cut the grass regularly and don't let rubbish build up and keep clear of pet foul.
- Keep shared areas clean – don't leave items or litter in communal spaces.
- Decorate the inside of your home as needed to keep it looking well.
- Report repairs that the Council is responsible for as soon as possible.

Apartments – Shared areas and security

Shared Areas: Keep corridors/stairs/lifts/entries clear; no personal items or rubbish. Use bin/recycling facilities; never leave bags or bicycles on landings or outside doors. Report damage/hazards promptly. Clothes must not be hung over balcony railings.

Security: Buzz in only people you know; ensure main doors close; never tamper with intercoms, fire doors, or security.

Parking and Outdoor Spaces: Use allocated spaces; do not block emergency routes. Keep balconies safe/tidy; nothing to be thrown or shaken from windows/balconies; no storing rubbish or flammables outside apartments.

Pets: If permitted, pets must not cause nuisance. Dogs must be kept on a lead in communal areas; always clean up.

If you're unsure about any part of your tenancy, please contact the Estate Management Team. We're here to help.

Important Reminder - Failure to maintain your home/garden, misuse of communal areas, or illegal dumping may be treated as antisocial behaviour.

04

Rent and Rent Assessment

1 NO POVERTY

Section 4 – Rent and Rent Assessment

Paying your rent is a key part of your tenancy. Rent helps Louth County Council maintain and manage housing services for everyone. You must pay your rent each week. If you miss a payment or fall behind, please contact the Council straight away. We're here to help and support you.

How Rent is Calculated

Your rent is based on your household's income and the number of people living in your home. This is called 'Differential Rent' and is governed by the Council's Differential Rent Scheme. If your income or family situation changes at any time, you must submit a Rent Form to declare this information. Your rent will be re-assessed and may go up or down.

The Council's rent scheme is updated on a regular basis and can be viewed on the Council's website www.louthcoco.ie/en/

At certain times the council will conduct a Rent Review and send you a Rent Review Differential Rent Form. You must fill it out and return it. If you don't, a penalty may be added to your account.

How to Pay Your Rent

Louth County Council offers several convenient ways to pay your rent. The preferred method is the Household Budget Scheme, which allows rent to be deducted automatically from social welfare payments collected at the Post Office (see appendix 1) for a full list of Recognised Social Welfare Payments). This option is especially helpful for tenants receiving social welfare as it reduces the risk of missed payments and helps keep your rent account up to date.

Other payment options include:

- Bank Standing Order
- Customer Service Desk
- Credit or Debit Card
- An Post Payment Card – usable at any Post Office

The Council may ask you to change your payment method to support more efficient rent collection.

Rent statements and rent review

Rent Statement: You'll receive regular rent statements showing charges, payments, and balances. You can request an up-to-date statement at any time.

Rent Review: The Council carries out a rolling rent review for all tenants in the County. At the time of the review, you will be contacted and asked to submit rent forms with fully up to date information by a certain date. This will ensure your rent accurately reflects your current financial situation. You must comply with this request when it is received.

Failure to return your forms on time may result in any of the following:

- If your income has increased rent will be backdated to the date of the increase. This may lead to you falling into arrears.
- If your income has decreased, you may not get the benefit of the reduction in rent backdated to the date your income reduced.
- You may have to pay an extra €50 each week, on top of your rent, until we receive the information.

Rent arrears and supports

If you fall behind on your rent, please contact the Council immediately. We're here to help. We can agree an affordable repayment plan with you. Ignoring arrears may result in legal action and could put your tenancy at risk. Arrears may also affect your eligibility for transfers, repairs or planned works.

For budgeting help, you can contact MABS (Money Advice and Budgeting Service).

Changes in Household Circumstances (Must be declared within 4 weeks of the change)

You must tell the Council if anything changes in your household. This includes:

- Someone gets a job or loses a job
- Changes in employment income
- Someone starts receiving social welfare
- Changes in payment type or amounts awarded
- Change in where payment is paid to i.e. Post Office or Bank
- A baby is born/adopted
- Someone moves in or out
- Someone turns 18
- A household member passes away

If you don't tell us about changes or do not return rent assessment forms when requested:

- Your rent may be recalculated and backdated, which could lead to rent arrears
- You may be breaking your Tenancy Agreement
- The Council may take further action

What Happens If You Fall Behind on Your Rent

We understand that life can be unpredictable. If you're having trouble paying your rent, you're not alone and help is available. Louth County Council is here to support you.

Please don't ignore the problem, talk to us early.

If you're having difficulty, contact Louth County Council immediately. Our staff are friendly and understanding. We can help you set up a payment plan, adjust your rent based on your income, or connect you with support services. The sooner you act, the more options you'll have.

Here's what may happen if your rent account falls behind:

First Warning Letter – If your rent is overdue by two or more weeks, you will receive a First Warning Letter.

2

Second Warning Letter – If the arrears are not cleared within two weeks, a Second Warning Letter will be sent.

3

Final Warning Letter – If the arrears continue for another two weeks, you will receive a Final Warning Letter.

4

Pre-Tenancy Warning Meeting - An appointment letter will issue if the arrears are not resolved at Final Warning Letter stage.

5

Tenancy warning - This is the first step in the commencement of legal proceedings. At this point your tenancy is now at risk.

6

Notice to Quit – Failure to respond to a tenancy warning, within 10 days, may result in the Council issuing a Notice to Quit. This ends your tenancy four weeks after it is served.

7

Court Action – If you don't leave the property after the Notice to Quit, the Council may apply to the District Court for a Possession Order.

Important Reminder - Your rent is your most important bill. It's what keeps a safe, secure roof over you and your family's head. Make it your first payment each week, before other bills or spending.

- You are responsible for the repair of any wilful or malicious damage and if the Council undertakes repairs resulting from such damages, the cost of such repairs will be charged to the tenant(s).
- You are responsible for repairs to doors, windows, fixtures and fittings in the dwelling caused by destruction or damage by burglary, housebreaking, vandalism, larceny or theft.
- You are responsible for meeting the costs of repairing any damage to the property (including fixtures and fittings) caused accidentally, deliberately (e.g. smashed windows/broken doors), by criminal damage or by your own neglect. The Council has the discretion to decide whether we will carry out the work (and recharge you).
- The tenant must keep the property free of vermin. You are responsible for the disposal of any vermin in your dwelling or garden, and you should contact a reputable pest control company to deal with the matter. To prevent pest problems, avoid leaving food outdoors and ensure your bins are not overflowing.

Condensation and Mildew

To keep your home free from damp and mould, you need to avoid creating condensation. There is always moisture in the air, caused by normal household activities such as cooking, washing, hot baths and drying clothes. When this air reaches a cold surface (such as a wall or window) some of the water in the air is left behind. This dampness encourages mould to grow. This can affect clothes, bedding and decoration.

Condensation can occur in every home, but you can reduce its effects by doing the following:

- Ventilate your home daily.
- Try to avoid drying clothes on radiators.
- Dry clothes outdoors if possible.
- If you have a tumble dryer, you must fit an outside vent to it unless it's a condenser dryer.
- Use extractor fans, cover pots and open windows a small amount when cooking.
- When running a bath, put the cold water in before the hot to reduce the steam and keep the bathroom door closed.
- Ventilate cupboards and wardrobes and do not put too many items in them as this stops air circulating.
- Keep a 'reasonable steady heat' in cold weather; wipe down windows and sills.
- Clean small areas of mildew using a suitable cleaner. Always wear gloves.
- Report persistent damp and/or mould to the Council.

Important Reminder

You are responsible for cleaning any filters associated with mechanical ventilation systems. Keeping vents open and clear.

- If you're going away on holiday, turn off the stopcock before you leave.
- In very cold weather, if the house will be empty, set the heating timer to come on for a few hours each day and night if you are able to. This helps prevent pipes from freezing.

Carbon Monoxide (CO)

Carbon monoxide is a poisonous gas that has no colour, taste or smell and is produced when any fossil fuel such as gas, coal, oil or wood is burnt without enough oxygen. The symptoms of carbon monoxide poisoning are similar to those of flu and other virus infections and include aches, drowsiness, weakness, headaches and nausea. If anyone in the home has any of these symptoms while a gas appliance is being used, they must stop using the appliance until it has been checked and they should consult a doctor.

It is recommended that you have a carbon monoxide alarm in every room that has a fuel-burning appliance and one within 5 m (16 ft) of every bedroom.

Important Reminder - Remember, a carbon monoxide alarm is not a substitute for a smoke alarm.

What can I do to avoid carbon monoxide?

There are lots of things you can do to prevent carbon monoxide from building up in your home.

- Where needed carbon monoxide detectors and alarms will be installed.
- If you install any new fuel burning appliances (gas cookers, stoves, and so on) you will need to install a carbon monoxide detector.
- It is advisable that any new appliance fitted by an approved installer is serviced at least once a year.
- You must get flues and chimneys checked and swept as necessary to remove any blockages.
- It is advisable that permanent ventilation openings are kept clear.
- Never block ventilation grilles/air bricks
- If you suspect CO: open windows, leave immediately, call emergency services.

Asbestos Awareness

What is Asbestos?

Asbestos is a material that was used in some older homes for insulation and fireproofing.

Is it dangerous?

It depends. It is safe if it is in good condition and left alone. Problems happen when asbestos is damaged, drilled, sanded, or broken. If this happens its tiny fibres can be released into the air. Breathing in these fibres over time can cause serious lung diseases.

What should you do?

Do not disturb it – never drill, cut, or sand areas that might contain asbestos. If you think asbestos has been damaged or you are unsure, report it to the Council straight away.

Important Reminder - Do not try to remove asbestos yourself – it needs trained professionals.

Health and Wellbeing in the Home

- Store cleaning products, paints, and other chemicals in a safe place, away from children and pets.
- Check for trip hazards like loose rugs, cluttered floors, or trailing cables and fix them quickly.
- Make sure rooms are well lit to avoid falls.

Child Safety

- Fit window restrictors, stair gates and child locks where needed
- Keep medicines/cleaners/sharps out of reach
- Never leave children unattended near heaters, cookers, or baths

Personal Safety and Security

- Lock doors/windows when out
- Don't share keys or codes
- Only let in people you know or trust
- Do not change or damage security systems or intercom

Anti-Social Behaviour and Neighbourhood Relations

16 PEACE, JUSTICE
INSTITUTIONS

Section 7 - Anti-Social Behaviour and Neighbourhood Relations

Louth County Council have a zero-tolerance policy towards anti-social behaviour. It causes distress, damages communities, and will not be accepted under any circumstances. Anti-social behaviour can range from serious acts like violence and harassment to persistent issues such as noise or vandalism.

We work closely with An Garda Síochána and other agencies to prevent and address these problems. If you engage in anti-social behaviour, you risk eviction and other legal action.

When you sign your Tenancy Agreement, you agree to:

- Be a responsible neighbour.
- Respect the peace and privacy of others.
- Ensure your enjoyment of your home does not interfere with others.

What is Nuisance Behaviour?

Nuisance behaviour is less serious or persistent than anti-social behaviour, but it still breaches your tenancy agreement. It can affect the comfort and enjoyment of others in the community and, if it continues, may escalate into anti-social behaviour.

Examples of Nuisance Behaviour

Noise Issues:

- Loud music, TVs, or radios at unreasonable times; persistent shouting.

Obstruction and Access Problems:

- Blocking driveways or footpaths;
- Leaving items in communal areas.

Trespassing:

- Entering another person's property without permission.

Parking Disputes:

- Parking in spaces allocated to others; abandoning vehicles

Boundary Disputes:

- Arguments or interference with fences or shared boundaries

Why it matters

Nuisance behaviour can reduce quality of life for neighbours and create tension in communities. If persistent, it can develop into anti-social behaviour, which is a serious breach of tenancy and may lead to eviction.

What is Anti-Social Behaviour?

Anti-social behaviour is serious and persistent conduct that breaches your tenancy agreement. It causes harm, fear, or danger to others and can lead to eviction without warning.

According to legislation, anti-social behaviour includes but is not limited to:

Drug-Related Activity:

- Manufacturing, supplying, or possessing drugs for sale in a local authority property.

Violent or Threatening Behaviour:

- Physical violence, domestic violence, threats, intimidation, harassment, coercion.

Behaviour Causing Danger or Fear:

- Actions likely to cause injury, damage, alarm, or fear.

Property Damage and Disorder:

- Vandalism, graffiti, or deliberate damage.

Persistent Nuisance Escalating to Serious Harm

- Repeated noise, harassment, or loitering that significantly affects others.

Anti-Social Behaviour and Children

Parents are responsible for their children's behaviour. Children should be encouraged to play safely and respect the community.

Reporting Anti-Social Behaviour

Louth County Council have a zero-tolerance policy for anti-social behaviour. If you experience or witness any incidents, it is essential to report them immediately. Your cooperation helps us act quickly and keep communities safe.

You Can Help By:

- Reporting incidents promptly – do not delay.
- Keeping a clear record of dates, times, and what occurred.
- Providing witness information and any supporting evidence (e.g., photos, videos if safe and legal to do so).

Why Reporting Matters

- Early reporting prevents problems from escalating.
- It helps protect vulnerable residents and maintain a safe environment.
- It ensures that those responsible are held accountable.

How to Report

You can report anti-social behaviour by:

- Contacting the Anti-Social Behaviour Officer at Louth County Council.
- Completing an Anti-Social Behaviour Complaint Form. You can collect the form from the Customer Services desks at all council offices, or download it online (click here).
- Providing as much detail as possible, including:
 - Date and time of the incident.
 - Location.
 - Description of what happened.
 - Names of those involved (if known).
 - Details of any witnesses.

For People Affected by These Behaviours:

We offer guidance and support to anyone reporting nuisance or anti-social behaviour.

In addition to council assistance, the following services are available in Louth:

How Does the Council Deal with This Behaviour?

Louth County Council has a policy for handling both nuisance and anti-social behaviour. Our approach is fair and proportionate to the seriousness of the issue.

When we receive a complaint, we usually start by speaking with the people involved.

All reports are handled confidentially, but you may be asked to provide a statement if legal action is required.

Investigations may involve interviews, evidence gathering, and liaison with other agencies including the An Garda Síochána.

Important Reminder - False or malicious complaints are a serious matter and may result in action against the person making the complaint.

If anti-social behaviour is confirmed, the Council will take appropriate action, which may include:

- Verbal Notification: A spoken warning to stop the behaviour. This is noted on your tenancy record.
- Tenancy Notification: A written notice asking you to stop the behaviour.

- Tenancy Warning: A formal legal warning requiring you to stop immediately. If the behaviour happens again within 12 months, we may start eviction proceedings.
- Possession Order: Commonly called an eviction order. Granted by the District Court, it allows us to remove you from the property and take back possession.
- Exclusion Order: A court order preventing you from entering a specific house or an entire estate because of anti-social behaviour.

Important Reminder - In very serious cases, we can apply directly for eviction or exclusion without prior warnings.

If Evicted for Anti-Social Behaviour

- You will be considered making yourself 'intentionally homeless' and will not be provided with homeless supports.
- You may not qualify for HAP (Housing Assistance Payment).

Owner Occupiers If you bought your local authority house and someone in your household causes anti-social behaviour, Louth Local Authorities can apply for an Exclusion Order to prevent that person from entering the estate.

Important Reminder - Anti-social behaviour will not be tolerated. Tenants must respect neighbours and community standards. Persistent nuisance or serious misconduct can lead to legal action, including eviction. Report issues promptly to help maintain a safe and supportive environment.

Living in Your Community

17 PARTNERSHIPS
FOR THE GOALS

Section 8 – Living in Your Community

Your home is part of a wider neighbourhood where everyone plays a role in creating a safe, friendly, and enjoyable environment. Living in your community means respecting others, taking pride in shared spaces, and working together to make your area a great place to live.

This section will help you:

- Find out about Residents' Associations and how they can benefit your area.

By following these guidelines and participating in local initiatives, you can help build a strong, supportive community where everyone feels welcome.

Being a Good Neighbour

- Warn neighbours if you plan a gathering and keep it within reasonable hours.

Manage pets responsibly

- Keep pets under control and prevent fouling in public areas.
- Avoid excessive barking or nuisance caused by animals.

Dispose of rubbish properly

- Use bins provided and follow recycling guidelines.

- Keep gardens, driveways, and shared spaces tidy and free from clutter.

Equality and Respect

Louth County Council is committed to promoting equality of opportunity and fostering a culture of respect across all services and interactions. In line with our core values we strive to ensure that every individual is treated with dignity, fairness, and professionalism.

Discrimination, harassment, hate speech, or intimidating behaviour is not tolerated under any circumstances and may be treated as antisocial behaviour. We encourage inclusive practices, celebrate diversity, and uphold the principles of equality in both policy and practice.

This commitment applies to staff, service users, and all members of the community.

Setting Up a Residents Committee

A Residents Committee is a group of tenants or homeowners who come together to improve their local area, represent community interests, and work collaboratively with the local authority and other stakeholders. Setting one up is a great way to build community spirit, address shared concerns, and access funding and support for local projects.

How to Set One Up

1. Start with a Meeting
Invite neighbours to an informal meeting to discuss common issues, ideas for improvement, and interest in forming a committee.
2. Elect Officers
Choose a Chairperson, Secretary, and Treasurer to help manage meetings, correspondence, and finances. These roles are essential for applying for grants and maintaining transparency.
3. Agree on a Constitution
Draft a simple constitution (set of rules) outlining the group's purpose, membership, meeting frequency, and decision-making process. This helps establish credibility and is often required for funding applications.
4. Register and Network
Notify your local authority (e.g. Louth County Council) and link in with the Louth Public Participation Network and/or Louth Local Development Company. They can offer advice, training, and funding opportunities.
5. Hold Regular Meetings
Meet regularly to discuss issues, plan activities, and keep members informed. Minutes should be recorded and shared.
6. Engage with the Community
Encourage participation through newsletters, noticeboards, or social media. Involve residents in clean-ups, planting days, or social events to build a sense of ownership and pride.

Community Grants and Involvement

Local Enhancement Programme (LEP)

Residents Committees play a vital role in fostering community spirit and improving local neighbourhoods. Through the Local Enhancement Programme (LEP), Residents Committees may be eligible to apply for funding to support small-scale capital projects or day-to-day operational costs. This includes improvements to shared spaces, purchase of equipment, or covering essential expenses like insurance or utilities. To qualify, the committee must operate on a not-for-profit basis, have a recognised governance structure (e.g. Chairperson, Secretary, Treasurer), and ensure that any funded activity benefits the wider community. Applications must align with the priorities of the Local Economic and Community Plan (LECP) and be submitted through Louth County Council's Local Community Development Committee (LCDC). www.localgov.ie

Tidy Towns Support

The Tidy Towns initiative celebrates the efforts of local communities to enhance the appearance, sustainability, and biodiversity of their towns and villages.

Louth County Council supports this work through annual Amenity Grant Schemes and Tidy Towns Project Funding. These provide financial assistance to formally established groups, including Residents Associations and Environmental Groups, undertaking visual improvements. These improvements include things such as:

- planting,
- painting,
- signage, and
- clean-ups.

Construction works are not eligible. Groups must be voluntary, tax compliant, and maintain proper governance records. Funding helps communities prepare for the National Tidy Towns Competition, and successful applicants have included projects like sensory gardens, heritage trails, pollinator planting, and outdoor amenities across County Louth.

Case Study – Community Development in Wadman Park

Background

Haggardstown is a new development that brings together families from diverse backgrounds into one community. It is a mixed-tenure area, with council tenants, homes managed by approved housing bodies, and privately owned houses. Wadman Park, Greengates, and Dundoogan, offer modern homes, but the challenge was creating a sense of belonging among residents who didn't know each other before.

Residents in Wadman Park, the first estate in the development, expressed concerns about isolation and limited services due to its location. There was little initial community engagement, and many of the residents felt the estate lacked a sense of identity.

Challenges

- Limited access to amenities : Wadman Park residents felt disconnected compared to other estates.
- New community dynamics : Residents were moving in for the first time, with limited opportunities to meet and interact.
- Low initial engagement : Some families were hesitant to participate in community activities.
- Risk of isolation : Without proactive engagement, new estates can struggle to foster a sense of community.

Solution To address these issues, Louth County Council's Estate Management Team firstly established a Residents Committee in Wadman Park. This enables the group to apply for local community funding, such as the Amenity Grant, and to become a member of the Louth Public Participation Network (Louth PPN).

However, it was clear that a broader, coordinated response was needed. As a result, the Haggardstown Interagency Group was established to work collectively on solutions. The group includes:

- Louth County Council Estate Management Team
- Tuath Housing
- Louth Local Development Company
- Local community representatives

Community Engagement Initiatives: To strengthen community ties and make use of local amenities, several activities were organised:

- Coffee Morning: Held at the local GAA centre to encourage informal interaction
- Walking Group: Promoting health and social connection.
- Family Fun Day: Residents from all three estates were invited. Activities included face painting, a tea and coffee van, and an ice-cream van, which proved very popular.

Additionally, the Social Inclusion and Community Activation Programme \(SICAP\) supported a series of planting events in collaboration with The Louth Growers Collective, a local growers' group. These events encouraged residents to grow their own food through demonstrations and hands-on activities, helping them establish vegetable patches in their gardens. The Haggardstown Interagency Group plans to reconnect with participants next spring to assess progress and continue fostering community engagement.

Impact

- Community Building: Families from Wadman Park, Greengates, and Dundoogan came together, forming new friendships and networks.
- Tenant Engagement: High participation demonstrated the success of inclusive, hands-on activities.
- Skills and Sustainability: Residents learned how to grow their own food, promoting healthier and more sustainable lifestyles.
- Sense of Pride and Ownership: Participants look forward to harvesting their vegetables, reinforcing positive connections to their homes and community.
- Improved Relations: Persistent efforts by residents, the Interagency Group, and the Estate Management Team show that perseverance leads to positive outcomes.

Learning

Although engaging tenants at the outset can be challenging, the dedication of the Residents, the Haggardstown Interagency Group, and the Estate Management Team demonstrates that perseverance achieves results. By fostering participation through a range of activities, we have shown that positive change is possible. This success provides a strong foundation for replicating similar initiatives across other Council estates.

Case Study 2 - Christmas Events (2025)

Festive Cheer in Doolargy Avenue and Wadman Park.

The Holiday spirit was in full bloom in Doolargy Avenue and Wadman Park where a Christmas Event was organised by Tenant Liaison Officer Aine.

The magic of Christmas was brought to the residents where Santa delivered a gift for each child ensuring no one was left out. The event was also energised by the Community Garda Team who made sure Santas arrival into the estates was memorable with lights and sirens on! They also successfully arrested the Grinch who had been evading custody in Wadman Park!

Residents were delighted with the event and commented on how nice it was to see smiles on everyone's faces, not just the children!

This was very encouraging for the TLO in supporting future events with the assistance of the Residents Committees in Council estates.

Moving On - Ending Your Tenancy

10 REDUCED
INEQUALITIES

Section 9: Moving on – Ending Your Tenancy

Transfers and Mutual Swaps

You may apply for a transfer to another Council property if:

- Your current home is overcrowded
- Your home is too large for your needs (this is called right sizing)
- You have medical or mobility needs that make your current home unsuitable

All transfer applications are assessed under the Allocations Scheme 2025, this includes right sizing options, especially for people aged over 55.

Mutual Swaps (Exchange of Tenancy)

If you'd like to swap homes with another Council or Approved Housing Body tenant, you can apply for a mutual exchange. This means you both agree to move into each other's homes.

You can apply if:

- Both homes are Council-owned or owned by Approved Housing Bodies (AHBs)
- Both tenants have clear rent accounts
- Bedroom requirements must meet the needs of both households.
- The swap cannot result in overcrowding or under-occupancy.
- Both parties must accept the property in its current condition.
- No maintenance works or upgrade works will be provided before or after the swap
- Both parties agree to the swap

Important Notes:

- Your rent account must be up to date before a transfer/mutual swap can be approved.
- The Council will also consider estate management issues when reviewing your application.
- If you've been involved in anti-social behaviour, this may affect your eligibility.

Taking Over a Tenancy (Succession)

If a tenant passes away or moves into long-term residential care (for example, a nursing home where they will not be returning to live at the property), a family member who is currently living at the property may be able to take over the tenancy. This process is called a succession.

To be considered, the person must:

- Be 18 or older
- Have lived in the home for at least 2 years.
- Be listed on the rent account for at least two years.
- Be eligible for housing support

Support During Bereavement

Losing someone close is never easy. If you're going through a bereavement, there are services in County Louth and nationwide that can help. See Section 10, Directory of Services, Bereavement Support Services for more information.

Surrender of tenancy

At some point, you may decide to move out of your Council home - whether you're relocating, buying your own place, or making a change for personal reasons. Whatever your reason, we're here to help make the process as smooth and straightforward as possible.

This section explains:

- How to end your tenancy properly
- What forms you'll need to complete
- What to do before handing back the keys
- Options available if you're thinking about buying a home

We've also included information on schemes like the Tenant Purchase Scheme.

If you have any questions or need help at any stage, please contact your local housing office. We're happy to support you.

Ending Your Tenancy: What Forms You Need

Step 1: Give Notice (Form TT1)

- You must give at least 4 weeks' written notice before you leave.

- To do this, fill out Form TT1 – Notice of Termination of Tenancy.
- You can get this form from your local housing office.

This form tells us:

- When you plan to leave.
- Why you're ending the tenancy.
- Your new address.
- Contact details for arranging a property inspection.

Step 2: Return the Keys (Form TT2)

When you're ready to hand back the keys, complete Form TT2 – Surrender of Tenancy.

This confirms:

- That you're officially giving up the property.
- That the home has been cleared and cleaned.
- That any rent arrears are being dealt with.
- That you understand any belongings left behind may be disposed of.

You'll also need to:

- Return all keys on your final day.
- Take final gas and electricity meter readings.
- Leave the home in good condition.

Moving Out Checklist

Use this checklist to make sure everything is sorted before you hand back the keys:

- Give at least 4 weeks' written notice to end your tenancy
- Arrange a pre-leaving inspection with your housing office
- Let your gas and electricity suppliers know you're moving

Preparing the Property

- Remove all personal belongings, furniture, and rubbish
- Leave the home clean and tidy, including garden and driveway

- Repair any damage caused during your tenancy

On Your Final Day

- Complete the Surrender of Tenancy form
- Return all keys (doors, windows, sheds, gates) by 12 noon
- Confirm your forwarding address for any future correspondence

Buying Your Home

Tenant Purchase Scheme

You may qualify to buy your home under the Tenant Purchase Scheme if:

- You're a long-term tenant (typically living in the property for 10 years or more).
- Your income meets the minimum threshold (currently €11,000 per year).
- Your home is eligible - Some properties cannot be purchased, such as those specially adapted for older people or people with disabilities.

If approved, you'll receive a discount. The Council will also retain a share in the property for a set number of years.
